

IT Technical Support person required for software company in North Ryde

Must have good troubleshooting skills, as well as excellent written and oral communication, preferably with experience in customer service or technical support. Require sound knowledge of Windows operating systems, and desktop applications including Microsoft Office and MYOB. Your knowledge of Microsoft CRM or .Net programming will be highly regarded.

Duties will also include software testing, system administration, telephone sales, general office tasks. 1-3 days per week (possibly more in University holidays), non smoking environment.

This position would suit a Computer Science or Engineering student.

To apply call Tim on 0428 28 9894.